

Gimpe (VG) is the basic material used for tassel making. But you'll be surprised how well it lends itself to all types of embroidery by hand and machine. Just use it for French Knots and you never want to use anything else to do them. Or for couching it down, it will give a very definite outline to all types of surface stitches.

